

ND-1100A

The nimble specialist for DVD+ format.

Burning vacation films for your home cinema, getting your favorite hits together for your next summer party, or just saving pictures and data digitally? NEC's ND-1100A has the optimal features for all these activities. It writes up to 4x using the commonly found DVD+R(W) standards and thus saves you long waits. And with up to 16x CD recording speed, it saves your old CD-burner a lot of work.
